Tristan Darkwater

"I met Tristan Darkwater once when he visited Sunhold. The lad was bright and friendly but only spoke when etiquette required, and never more than was needed. I am certain he felt great unease socializing among his own kind."

- Darius, Terminal Amurai[1]

Guarding Erris Isle, Tristan communes with the life of every being in the ocean. He is a new Phoenixborn, introduced for Ashes Reborn in The Ocean's Guard.

History

A solitary Phoenixborn, less is known about him than many others. There are hints that he might not be human.
